The Radical Proscription Policy.

We are sorry to learn, from authentic information, that Capt. Wallace, the efficient and popular Superintendent of the Selma and Meridian Railroad, is to be removed in a few days, through Radical machination.

Regardless of his skillful management of the road, and the pecuniary loss that will necessarily follow the removal of a popular officer like Capt. Wallace, he must needs fall at the behest of the fanatics, who at present, to the great detriment of our country, rule simply that they may ruin and wreak their political vengeance upon all who dare to resist their ill-gotten authority.

Removal of Mercer University.

It will be seen, by reference to our special telegram from Newnan, that the Georgia Baptist Convention, by a vote of seventy-one to sixteen, has decided to remove Mercer University from its present location, to some point more eligible and favorable to the best interests of this important institute.

It is an important step, and we trust fraught with blessings for the noble educational and religious interests involved.

The new location to which the University is to be removed, is a point of deep interest and weighty consideration, but we feel confident that this matter, like all others, treated by the Convention, will reach alike satisfactory and successful culmination, through the moderation and wisdom of the members of the Convention.

THE HABEAS CORPUS IN GEORGIA.

Arrest of Mr. H. Martin, of Warrenton, Ga.—Refusal of the Sheriff to Recognize the Jurisdiction of the Court—The Civil Law Powerless.

From an authentic source we learn the following particulars of the arrest of Mr. H. Martin, in Warrenton, Georgia, charged with conspiracy and murder, and the action of the civil authorities in the case.

It will be seen that the civil authorities are powerless to enforce the laws of the country, and that, in this case at least, the bulwark of all constitutional liberty, the habeas corpus, is suspended in Georgia:

WARRENTON, GA., April 22, 1870.

On yesterday afternoon J. C. Morris, Sheriff, arrested H. Martin, of this place, and put him in jail at once. This morning, at the instance of Col. E. H. Pottle, Attorney, a writ of habeas corpus was issued by the Ordinary and served upon the Sheriff.

The return or answer of the Sheriff was in substance that H. Martin was arrested on "a warrant duly issued and charged with conspiracy and murder;" that he was held subject to the order of Gen. Terry, and for these reasons could not comply with the writ. Exceptions were taken to the return as follows:

1st. The body was not produced in court;

2d. The warrant was not shown;

3d. No order of Gen. Terry was exhibited.

These exceptions were sustained, and the Sheriff was ordered to comply; this he refused to do. The Ordinary who issued the writ, ascertained that he was powerless to enforce an attachment for contempt, and here the proceedings stopped, and the case continued until Gen. Terry can be heard from.

The question, you perceive, is one of jurisdiction.

Have civil authorities any right to try in such cases?

Is habeas corpus suspended?

Georgia News.

Rev. Mr. Earle, the great Baptist revivalist is expected in Savannah this week.

The Air-Line Railroad is progressing finely; a half mile per day of the track is being laid, says the Gainsville Eagle.

Three persons were killed and twenty wounded by the accident to an excursion train on Friday on the Macon and Brunswick Railroad.

The Bainbridge Sun says Col. B. F. Bruton has been re-elected President of the Bainbridge, Cuthbert and Columbus Railroad.

The Savannah News of the 25th says large numbers of delegates are arriving in that city, to participate in the Press Convention. The greatest harmony prevails.

The Savannah Advertiser of the 24th says the United States District Court has served summons upon General De Russey, in the habeas corpes case of Gerstman. The General acknowledges service.

The Macon Telegraph and Messenger says: On Thursday afternoon last, at Crawford Station, on the Macon and Western Railroad, a fight occurred between Mr. J. E. Benton, a brother-in-law of Mr. J. E. Hudgins, of East Macon, and Mr. W. Hardy Perkins.

The Savannah News, 25th, contains the following account of an outrageous assault, battery and robbery: At about 4 o'clock yesterday morning, three negro men forced their way into the house of a widow lady residing on Jones street lane, between Bull and Drayton streets. One of them seized her by the hair and held her, while another beat her in the face with his fist. Whilst this was going on, the third villain collected all the clothing of the lady and her children, with which the party left the house. The lady's face is so terribly bruised that her eyes are nearly closed.

The Montgomery Mail says: We understand that Mr. Wadley, the President of the Central Railroad, and Hon. John P. King, President of the Georgia Railroad, were in conference yesterday with Mr. Pollard, and that the long pending difficulties between the two lines were harmonized, and arrangements perfected that will result in increased facilities to our section, both as to travel and transportation.

The Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel says the colored people of that city have decided to change the day for their contemplated celebration of the 15th Amendment, as the time originally selected came in conflict with memorial ceremonies in honor of the Confederate dead.

Georgia Baptist Convention.

THIRD DAY.

Special Cor. of The Atlanta Constitution]

NEWNAN, April 25, 1870.

Shall I leave the holy Sabbath, with its pious labors, its spiritual influences, and its religious joys, forming a blank page in these notes?

It is hoped that the report made by the recording angel above is not a blank, but filled with results which have thrilled the angelic heart with joy.

THE CHURCHES

were all filled with attentive hearers, who listened to sermons from such men as Shaver, Landrum, Tucker, Wilkes, Ivey and Warren. The people were convinced at least, that these were earnest and zealous men, whose hearts were profoundly engaged in their great work.

The day was beautiful and pleasant. Nature smiled, and God seemed to approve and favor the religious improvement of the occasion.

MONDAY MORNING, April 25, 1870.

The preliminary ceremonies having been gone through with, Mr. Landrum claimed the floor to address the Convention on the

REMOVAL OF MERCER UNIVERSITY.

He had reluctantly concluded it was necessary to remove the University. If the Convention were to refuse to remove the College, and the Board of Trustees and Faculty were to resign, would that secure the harmony necessary to insure success.

The present location was only agreed upon as a compromise, and has never been satisfactory. It is almost under the shadow of the State University, and the proximity of the institutions prevents, in some measure, the wanted success. The question now is not one of being, but of well being. We may exist at Penfield, but can we not do better elsewhere? The removal of colleges is no new thing. Brown University was originally at Seybrook, but had to be moved to Providence. Furman University was originally on the high hills of Santee, but was removed to Greenville, where it has enjoyed greatly increased prosperity.

The ark was a blessing to the house of Obed—Edom but was divinely ordered to be removed. A boy being educated should not be secluded from the world. This is the Catholic theory and practice, but one can not be fitted for society, out of society, but under the influence with which they are to mingle, and thus mould and form their characters for the sphere in which they are afterwards to move. A boy who enjoyed the society of pure females was thereby restrained from vice and developed in the noble virtues of the mind.

It was said that cities were places of temptation; was not Eden sufficently rural? Did the Savior find the man beset with a legion of devils in the city? Did not Satan take Jesus into the wilderness in order to bring to bear his greatest temptation. Paul received his education in Gamaliel's school in Jerusalem. Was there any greater apostle than he? Amid the conflicts and efforts needs the social religious help of others.

In a city, we could add the professorships of medicine, law, agriculture, etc. So that our students could be fully educated in any profession they might choose. By removing the university to a city the patronage would be increased one hundred pupils, this would bring in $10,000 in addition to our present income, which would quite sustain our college. Then are we not paying ten thousand dollars a year, just to let the college remain in Penfield. Should we pay so dearly for the privilege of doing so little?

The fathers of the institution were always ready to change when wisdom dictated its necessity, to illustrate, when I first went to Penfield I conducted a young lady to the Chapel, for which I was marked, the fathers soon saw that it was best for the young men to enjoy the benefit of female society, and therefore repealed the stringent resolution. They found that manual labor did not promote the best interests of the University, and therefore revoked that feature of the institution.

Mr. Harris was willing to withdraw his resolution in the spirit of compromise, provided an expression of the Convention in favor of removal were had, then refer the whole subject to a committee who should act in conjunction with the Board of Trustees, and appealed to Mr. Clark if he would not withdraw his motion, in order that his resolution might be substituted by Mr. Kilpatrick's plan.

Mr. Clark thought, as the question was now up, it could not do harm to answer the question directly—"are you satisfied with the present location of the University, or are you not?" If not now decided, it will still remain a source of agitation for a year longer. The Convention must decide the question for itself, and not rid itself of this responsibility by referring it to another body. A poor mill that was of no service, might remain where there was no corn to grind, but a good one should be placed in a grain country, or else where it might be reached. Mercer University was a good mill, and ought to occupy a more favorable location.

Mr. Clark withdrew his motion, and called for the previous question, but by request of many brethren, he withdrew his call, and moved again the indefinite postponement.

Mr. Davis thought Penfield was the very best place in Georgia for the University. We must adapt a building to the purposes for which it is intended. For the purpose of educating young men to leave their impress upon society, they should be educated in a town just large enough to accomplish the end in view. Our denominational power is in the country. Should we educate our boys with the manners adapting to this, or to city work? The men filling the pulpits of our city churches were principally educated in the country. Intellectually, the quiet valley is much more favorable then the city, where there are whirling cars, rattling drays, and theaters. City Baptists are not so sound in the faith. The Faculty, if removed to the city, would not be faithful to their denominational principles. He thought Penfield is the very best location. It is not now everything it ought to be. We have an excellent building there, worth $30,000. Removal would involve a loss of the endowment fund. In 1857, a number of legal gentlemen expressed the opinion that a forfeiture of the funds would succeed the removal. Penfield is not an obscure place. It is what I call a railroad town, because the road runs in four miles. If the college is removed, carry with it the bones of those who consecrated the place with their prayers.

Mr. Wellborn knew nothing of the intention of Messrs. Clark and Irwin, and could have desired the introduction of it in some other way. It should be discussed fraternally, but the sentiment of this denomination is already divided on the question of removal. We have tried to unite at Penfield—we have tried it for forty years and failed. Let us do right, act the truth without respect to cost. A number of legal gentlemen of rare ability have decided that the endowment fund would not be endangered. But let us bear every claim, and pay whatever is just. We can never carry the Baptist patronage of Georgia to Penfield. If we want an institution for the denomination in the State, we must put it where they will bring their boys to it.

Mr. Kirkpatrick occupied an unpleasant position as the author of a compromise between the two extremes, but can not now offer it, as it is excluded by existing motions. He would give the outlines of his proposition. Personally, he was not in favor of removal, but if necessary for the fullest prosperity of the College, he would yield his private feelings. We should not remove till the location is decided upon. We have not the faith of Abraham, who "went forth not knowing whither he went." Unanimity can not be secured after a vote in favor of removal.

The first thing towards unanimity is to settle the point as to whether the failure is owing to the place or to the men. There were some here who thought the difficulty is in the men, but from the kindness and courtesy of their hearts would not say so, but if the Trustees were sure that this Convention believed they were mismanaging the University they would resign at once. If the fault is in the Faculty, let the Board say so, and they, he felt sure, would not longer be in the way. But suppose it be the fault of the place? Can't it be remedied? If not, then remove. The place seems to have deteriorated socially and religiously since its brighter and better days.

The compromise was read by Mr. Kilpatrick, which I will send, if I can obtain it. It proposes a member from each Association, to be selected by the delegates now present. This Committee shall appoint sub-committees to ascertain what inducements may be offered by any places desiring the University, and to ascertain what may be the legal liabilities of the University in the event of removal. To meet at Penfield at next Commencement, then and there to decide the question of removal, and if they decide to remove, where? and report at once to the Trustees, who will then be in session. He did not propose to have this committee co-operate with the Board, because he was a Trustee.

Mr. Hornady referred to the resolution passed in Augusta. David decided to remove the ark before he selected the place. He had known some North Carolina persons who removed into Georgia, and stopped at the first place they came to, and did well. A young man who had never seen a wagon before followed the first one that came by, just to see if the hind wheels would not overtake the fore ones, he continued his pursuit till he arrived in Lee county, Georgia, and there being convinced that this catastrophe would not take place, he "stuck down his stake" and becomes, and is now, a pretty good lawyer. Penfield is the North Carolina, it must be benefitted, can scarcely be worsted by being removed. The denomination is satisfied with the Board of Trustees, and the Trustees are satisfied with their noble Faculty, who are not surpassed in ability by any scholars of our day.

Mr. Debatie arose, but the time for adjournment having arrived, he secured the floor for the afternoon and took his seat.

The discussions have been able and fraternal, doing great honor to the heads and hearts of the contestants on both sides of the question. No one can listen to the speeches without being fully convinced that all have in view the welfare of the great educational interest.

There has not been a single word or hint from the lips of any speaker that his opponent was not sincere—conscientious in his views. In this respect this is the most remarkable discussion to which I ever listened.

But I am now on the wing. I leave the convention in its crisis of deepest interest. To the good and noble christian men who have contributed so much to my pleasure and profit, I return sincere thanks, and to the good and generous people whose hospitality and courtesy have met us at every point and gratified all our wants, and made our stay so exceedingly delightful, we take this last occasion to express our profoundest gratitude.

GREEN LINE CONVENTION.—The Green Line Convention met this morning. Among those present we noticed M. W. Smith, General Freight Agent Louisville and Nashville, Major C. W. Anderson, Nashville and Chattanooga, C. H. Williams, General Freight Agent Atlantic and Gulf Railroad, H. S. Haines, Superintendent Atlantic and Gulf, Capt. A. J. White, President Macon and Western, J. M. Selkirk, Superintendent Rome, Col. L. P. Grant, Superintendent Atlanta and West Point Railroad, A. L. Harris, Master of Transportation Western and Atlantic Railroad, A. Pope, General Freight Agent, D. H. Cram, Superintendent Montgomery and West Point Railroad, Edgar Vliet, General Freight Agent Selma, Rome and Dalton Railroad, Ed. Werner, Georgia Railroad and South Carolina, Thos. E. Walker Claim Agent.

Col. L. P. Grant presided over the deliberations of the body, and R. C. Robson acted as Secretary.

After appointing various committees, the Convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

PROSTRATION PLAYED OUT.—Violent purgatives, emetics, salivants, blistering and bleeding have had their day.

The sick can no longer be persuaded that the best way to cure them is to destroy the little strength that disease has left them.

Dyspeptics, instead of dosing themselves with epsom salts, aloes, coycinth, jalap, and other powerful cathartics, tone their digestive organs and regulate their bowels with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Persons of bilious habit, instead of throwing the whole glandular system into a state of morbid irritation with mercurial poison, seek relief, and find it, in the operation of that wholesome vegetable alterative upon the disordered liver.

Nervous sufferers, tremulous, weak and despondent, recruit their shattered energies with a course of the great invigorant, and bless the day when the adulterated liquors of commerce were superseded by a medicated stimulant, perfectly efficient and entirely harmless.

Travelers by land and sea rejoice in the possession of an agreeable corrective, which protects them from the evil effects of malaria, from sea sickness, and from the disturbing influences of changes of temperature and change of water.

The weak and debilitated feel their strength restored and their spirits revive under its bracing, appetizing, gently exhilarating action.

It is the only stimulant which cautious physicians can conscientiously recommend to ladies in delicate health, or to the aged and decrepid.

There is not a city, town or settlement on the American continent where it is not recognized as a household remedy, and a safeguard against epidemics; and, in short, whenever there is intelligence, prudence and common sense, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are pronounced a standard specific, for which, in the whole range of pharmacy, there is no substitute or equivalent. apl26-2eodlw&wlt

KOZOO.—This medicine is rapidly gaining the confidence of the people, and the numerous testimonials of its virtues, given by gentlemen of medicine, leaves no doubt that it is a safe and reliable remedy for impurity of the blood, liver disease, etc.

The last Medical Journal contains an article from Prof. E. S. Newton, M. D., President of the E. Medical College, city of New York, that speaks in high terms of its curative properties, and gives a special recommendation of Kozhoo to the practitioners of medicine. This is, we believe, the first instance where such medicines have been officially endorsed by the Faculty of any of the medical colleges, and reflects much credit upon the skill of Dr. Lawrence, its compounder, and also puts "Kozhoo" in the van of all other medicines of the present day. 24dlm 4dwlm

More About the Bullock-Blodgett Corruption Charge — Another Damaging Item in the Case.

We learn from a reliable and authentic source, that a well known political gambler recently called at a broker's office in New York city, for the purpose of selling a draft, signed by Blodgett, for one hundred and fifty dollars upon Harris.

He stated to the broker that the draft would certainly be paid, there was no doubt whatever about it, as he had had several of the same kind before, and that they were duly paid.

The party offering the draft is well known, and his name, if necessary, can be given.

The Infamy of the Radical Party.

The Richmond Dispatch, alluding editorially to the grand lying scheme so successfully adopted by modern Radicalism, and especially exemplified by the Bullock, & Co., faction in Georgia, who are not ashamed to make use of the meanest and most contemptible subterfuges, in order to save themselves from rushing into merited oblivion, with great truth and point, says:

"So all of those distressing telegrams from Georgia which Forney's Chronicle has been publishing during the last few weeks were written in Washington, and paid for by Bullock and his tools! The assassination of Judge Jones, the maltreating of Internal Revenue Collector Smith, the hanging of several loyalists, the murder of a few innocent negroes—all these stories were manufactured out of the whole cloth, and published in the papers merely to bolster up the cause of the Bullockites and induce the Senate to continue them in office two years after the expiration of their constitutional terms. Was there ever so infamous a party?"

We deem it quite unnecessary to answer the closing question of the article which, as the well known falsity of the sensational telegrams alluded to, bears the answer upon its face.

Such tricks and equivocations as are alluded to by the Dispatch, may not be considered infamous by a party whose moral perceptions have long ago been sacrificed for corrupt party ends, but to the common eye, and a judgment free from the venom of radicalism, they do appear shameless and infamous, when it is considered that by this means sacred laws are violated, the interests of a loyal people sacrificed, and constitutional obligations defied.

Four Substitutes for the Georgia Bill.

The following are the four substitutes to be offered in the House in lieu of the Georgia Bill as passed by the Senate.

Mr. Cessna, of Pennsylvania, has prepared a substitute admitting Georgia to representation at once, and providing for the election of a new Legislature in November, 1872. This does away with the provisional or military feature of the Senate bill. Gen. Logan has prepared another substitute, which simply admits Georgia to representation now in Congress, and provides for an election in the present year for a new Legislature, at which all persons who are electors by the Georgia constitution shall vote. Mr. Ingersoll, Illinois, has drawn up still another bill, declaring the government of Georgia shall cease to be provisional, and that an election for Senators and members of the Legislature shall come off next November, the State in the meantime to be admitted. Bingham and Logan's substitute is as follows: "Strike out all after the enacting clause of the bill and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"That an election shall be held in said State of Georgia, in 1870 for members of the General assembly of said State, provided for in the Constitution of said State, adopted by its convention on the 11th day of March, 1868, at which election all persons who by said Constitution are electors shall be entitled to vote.

"Section 2. And be it further enacted, That the State of Georgia is hereby declared entitled to representation in Congress."

It will thus be seen that a lively time in the Georgia muddle can yet be anticipated, and that the prophetic ukas of President Ulysses, "Let us have peace," is very far from reaching its desirable fruition. There are as many substitutes for Georgia on hand at present as there used to be "substitutes" for coffee, among the people of the Confederate States, in the ever memorable days of the war for Southern independence.

Bullock-Rice-Blodgett "Ring."

The special correspondent of the Savannah News, writing from Washington under date April 19th, says:

The interest of Rice in the Georgia bill is understood here to grow out of the fact that he is one of the ring of Northern capitalists engaged in building the Brunswick road, and for which they get twice the amount in State bonds per mile, which the construction of the road costs. If the present Legislature is declared illegal, and a free and fair election is held, these bonds will become worthless, and further jobs will be prevented. So thinks Rice and others of the ring, and hence they can afford to spend much money here to stave off a result to them so undesirable. The carpet-bag Congressmen elected to the Fortieth Congress joined the Bullock-Rice Blodgett ring, hoping that they might thereby be able to gain admission to the Forty-first Congress. Prince professes to be quite sure of getting his seat, and when he does he will resign the postmastership at Augusta. He has no idea, however, of letting go the bird in the hand until he has secured the bird in the bush. It is self-interest and self-protection alone which have thus brought together the men who form the band of conspirators against Georgia. There is little personal friendship among them. Prince is known to be no friend of Bullock's in reality, though he assumes to be just now for the purpose of advancing his own interests.

BEHIND THE TIMES.—Under this head the Columbus Sun makes the following editorial remarks about the startling rumor published by THE CONSTITUTION recently, concerning the proposed sale of the State Road, in the interest of the Bullock-Blodgett faction. The Sun says:

"Our usually wide-awake cotemporary must have been napping. The sale has already been made to the Express Company, and the action of Congress is only waited for so that the 'illegal and revolutionary' may confirm the bargain. A well-posted gentleman gave us the terms some months since. The Express Company takes up the outstanding bonds of the road to the amount of six millions of dollars, in lieu of which it issues its own bonds to a like amount. The State endorses these last, and the Express Company takes the road."

☞ In the Senate the joint resolution, providing that all public lands in the States of Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida, and Arkansas shall be subject to disposal under homestead laws by preemption under the same regulations as apply to the lands of other States, was amended and laid over.

☞ Arrangements are being made in New York to organize a colony to settle in Alabama.

President Grant and the Georgia Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The President is opposed to the pending Georgia bill. He is opposed to military government where it can be avoided, and desires an immediate resolution, on some basis; but makes no suggestions.

He sends $300,000.

The San Domingo Business.

During a recent levee, the President said: "Well, Governor, how about that San Domingo business?"

Senator Morton replied: "The iron is hot."

Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court adjourned to Saturday, when, after delivering some opinions, will adjourn till fall.

The Treasury.

Coin in the Treasury, including $35,500,000 in gold certificates, $114,500,000; currency balance $9 250,000; disbursements under the recently adopted deficiency bill are heavy.

Nominations.

The President nominated John F. Appleton District Judge for the Eastern District of Texas.

Congressional.

In the Senate the Finance Committee reported unanimously against the change of tax on distilled spirits.

The Committee on Education reported the appropriation of $25,000 out of the funds of the Freedmen's Bureau for Wilberforce University, Ohio, a colored institution. The same committee were instructed to inquire into the expediency of dividing among the States the net proceeds of the sales of the public lands for the education of the whole American people. A bill was introduced to better the protection of the frontiers of Texas, authorizing the military commanders to accept the services of native volunteers not exceeding 1,000.

The Military Committee reported a substitute for House Army bill reducing the army to 25,000 men, incapable officers to be retired, and vacate offices to be absorbed in others of lower grades.

The House bill allowing the Secretary of the Treasury fifty-three detectives was passed.

The Committee on Retrenchments reported favorably on the bill establishing a department of justice with the Attorney General at its head.

The Tariff bill was resumed.

The Iron bill is still pending. The debate acrimonious, without disposing of it.

The House is in session to-night.

The Decoration.

MOBILE, April 26.—The decoration of the graves of the Confederate dead took place to-day, and the weather was delightful. Thousands attended the cemetery, and literally strewed a mass of flowers, wreaths and garlands upon the graves. Addresses were delivered by Gen. E. G. Lee and others. It was all under the auspices of the Ladies' Memorial Association.

A Wife-Murderer Respited.

RICHMOND, April 26.—James Jeter Phillips, sentenced to be hung next Friday, for murdering his wife, was respited sixty days.

FOREIGN.

ATHENS, April 26.—The brigand excitement is unabated. The bodies of Lloyd and Herbert, of the British Legation, were buried here. The King, diplomats and many citizens, attended the funerals.

The brigands are all killed or captured.

PARIS, April 26.—While the plebiscite is pending, the Prince Imperial will visit several European capitals and numerous orderly meetings throughout France.

Ollivier is framing a compromise between laborers and capitalists.

Ollivier has addressed a circular to the enemies of France. He impresses upon the people the fact that while an affirmative vote means quiet and peace, and will give an opportunity for the Emperor and his ministers to accomplish reforms; a negative vote means anarchy, disorder, revolution and revenge.

Galloi's newspaper says ship owners are badly disappointed in the Suez canal. Screw steamers, especially, are sure to meet with accidents.

LONDON, April 25.—The artist, Maclin, is dead, aged sixty years.

The telegraph construction company has leased the Great Eastern for five years for cable purposes.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

The Indians.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Advices from the Indian country continue quite threatening. Government is taking active precautions.

The Cabinet session to-day was prolonged by the consideration of the Indian question.

The Pacific Railroad.

The sub-Committee of the Pacific Railroad Committee on the bill incorporating and granting land and right of way to the Southern Trans-Continental Company, have reported, they say: "The question of the right of a railroad company to acquire lands from the State of Texas, must be decided without any reference to the present State Constitution, there is no doubt of the right of the Legislature to grant lands to aid in the construction of railroads, but from examination we are forced to the conclusion that the Memphis, El Paso, and the Pacific called the Trans-Continental railroad company by neglect to perform the work required of them have lost the right to demand any more lands from Texas. It is not to be supposed that the Convention meant for the future to propitiate the application of their public domain in aid of the construction of railroads and other internal improvements in Texas.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, April 26.—A number of Carlists were arrested while they were returning from Spain.

Several leaders were seized on the frontier.

LA PRESS announces amnesty for offenders against the press law, on the twelfth of May.

Rospari, chief of the Radicals, has pronounced against the plebiscite.

He advises the citizens to remain quiet in case of riot, declaring all must be decided by universal suffrage and nothing by violence. The ministerial Circular on Plebiscitum, has been censured by many journals because it alludes to "spectre rouge." Opposition to plebiscitum gains ground here.

It was remarked to-day that the Emperor, while holding review, was coldly received.

LONDON, April 26.—The World's Chess Congress is called to meet at Baden on the 15th of May.

The ship Tamerline, from Havana, foundered at sea. The crew was saved.

ROME, April 26.—Six hundred fathers in the Ecumenical Council voted for the Constitution de fido.

THE INCOME TAX.

How Butler Proposes to Regulate the Great American Nuisance.

The following is the resolution which General Butler proposes to offer in the House:

Resolved, etc., That the Committee on Ways and Means be directed to prepare and bring in a bill abolishing the income tax as now provided by law, and instead thereof, assess a tax of five per cent. of the interest paid upon all invested capital, whether in bonds of railroad, insurance or other incorporated companies, or of towns, counties, cities, States, or the nation, providing for its payment into the Treasury of the United States, under such guards and regulations as may be proper, by whoever shall pay such interest to the holder thereof, and to be deducted therefrom; also, upon all loans, however secured, having a longer time to run than one year, or which are renewed for a longer time than that period, by the deduction of five per cent. of the interest thereon, to be paid into the Treasury by the payer thereof; also, five per cent. upon all dividends of all incorporated or joint stock companies, such as banks, insurance companies and railways and others, by causing to be retained by the company and paid into the Treasury five per cent. thereof; also upon all mortgages and leases of lands and tenements, five per cent., to be deducted by the payer of the interest upon such mortgages and the rent under such leases; also, a tax of one per cent. on all property, or estates in succession, legacies, or deeds of gift for other than charitable purpose, on the inventorial or appraised value thereof in the settlement of such estates, if the property descends, is devised or given to one next in blood not of a collateral branch, three per cent. In case any property is bequeathed, descends, or is given to one of a collateral branch, and five per cent. in case the property or estate is devised or given to a stranger, or to a corporation not charitable nary in its character and free to all without price, which tax is to be collected by the judge, surrogate or other officer settling the estate when the accounts are passed or settled, and paid by him into the Treasury of United States; also, providing in addition to the stamps now required by law, a stamp equal to one per cent. of the interest upon all loans not before mentioned, however the same may be secured, the amount thereof to be deducted from the interest thereof made by any individual or corporation; also, that every railroad ticket, telegraph message, and express package shall have a stamp of five cents each; also, to establish such taxes upon the manufacture, keeping, and sale of spirituous and fermented liquors as they may deem just and proper, and also upon the manufacture and sale of tobacco in all its forms; also to abolish the offices of assessor and assistant assessor of internal revenue, establishing such other offices for the collection of the tax on whisky and tobacco as may be necessary; also repealing all other internal taxation whatever.

Bullock, Blodgett & Co., in Washington—Their Operations in the Alleged Bribery Cases—The Closing of the Senate Investigation a False Report.

A recent Washington special to the Richmond Dispatch says:

Dictated by the Bullock party, telegrams have been sent hence, indicating that the investigation of alleged tampering with Senators to induce them to vote against the Bingham Amendment in the Georgia bill, is substantially at an end. Such, I learn from the best source, is not the case; but the fact is that the Senate Committee has obtained testimony of the most damaging character against Bullock, Blodgett & Co. The Committee has enjoined secrecy upon the witnesses examined, but your correspondent has assurance to-night that the testimony thus far is to the effect that it was attempted to purchase the votes of at least two members, and of this the proof is ample. The price per vote offered was $10,000 in Georgia bonds.

It is in proof that Bullock gave a draft to a newspaper editor upon a bank at Atlanta, Ga., in part payment for advocating his cause, and for publishing so-called special dispatches purporting to come from Georgia but in fact prepared in this city. These dispatches were intended to work upon members of Congress and to make it appear that society in Georgia was in a fearfully demoralized condition, etc., and that nothing would save the State but the perpetuation in office of Bullock and his party.

Senator elect Hill says he did not receive telegrams from Georgia informing him that bonds had been sent here to be used by Butler to purchase votes of Senators. All the information he derived on the subject came to him from parties in this city. The proofs yet to be decided will disclose a case of corruption astonishing even in this community.

☞ The new $100 legal tender notes, which have been expected for a long time, were issued from the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

BELLINGRATH—The friends and acquaintances of Mr. L. and A. Bellingrath, and Mr. C. GRAY'S FERRY PRINTING INK WORKS.
Gray's Ferry Road and Thirty-third Street.
PHILADELPHIA.

From the Charlotte (N. C.) Observer.]

IMPORTANT TO PRINTERS.—The above well established printing ink works have been induced by present to our readers for the last few days, was sent us last week some ink from the agency of Mr. W. H. Bernard, Wilmington, N. C. Mr. B. furnishes this ink at manufacturers prices, and assures us it is cheaper than ink ordered from the manufactory direct. The inks are of a superior quality, as all can see who are in the habit of reading the publications from the office of Mr. B. Several of our exchanges are printed with his ink, and, without exception, show great improvement since commencing its use.

From the Wilmington (N. C.) Star.]

ROBINSON'S INKS.—The Star Agency for the sale of Robinson's popular Printing Inks is now patronized by most of the publishers in the two Carolinas. Yesterday we filled orders for the North Carolina Presbyterian, Raleigh Standard, Statesville American, and Sumter (S. C.) News. All who have used Robinson's Inks recommend them in the highest terms.

From the Gazette, Lewisburg, Pa.]

We have been using the Ink spoken of above for some years, and cheerfully endorse it as superior to any we have had in the office for years, notwithstanding it costs five cents per pound less.

From the Clearfield (Pa.) Republican.]

GOOD INK.—For six months past we have been using Mr. Robinson's Ink, and we confess that, although we have for ten years used ink manufactured at different establishments, we never had better ink.

From the Bloomsburg (Pa.) Republican.]

The ink we are now using is from the "Gray's Ferry Printing Ink Works." It is not necessary for us to make further comment, as it is its own best recommender. We purpose using this ink so long as it continues at its present quality, and it has been on hand for the winter, and so highly recommended, that we have no doubt we shall not be called upon soon to change.

From the Stonington (Pa.) News.]

We are using in our office Printing Ink manufactured by the "Gray's Ferry Printing Ink Works," and find it entirely satisfactory in quality and price, and take pleasure in recommending it.

From the Wilson (N. C.) Plaindealer.]

We have received from Mr. W. H. Bernard, Wilmington, a sample can of Printing Ink, manufactured by C. E. Robinson, Gray's Ferry Printing Ink Works, Philadelphia, for the sale of which Mr. Bernard is agent for this section. We have tried the sample, and consider it superior to any ink we have for a long time used, costing as little money. We think the printers of the State will do well to purchase their ink from Mr. Bernard.

Col. Wm. H. Bernard, of the Wilmington Star, has placed us under obligations for a liberal sample of Robinson's Gray's Ferry Printing Ink, the best and cheapest article of news ink now offered in the Southern markets. We have used many kinds of ink during our publishing experience, but can cheerfully commend Robinson's make as superior to almost every other ink we have tried. It may be ordered direct from W. H. Bernard, agent, Wilmington, N. C., a great convenience for Southern publishers.

From the Phillipsburg (Pa.) Journal.]

This issue of the Journal is printed with ink from the Gray's Ferry Printing Ink Works, Philadelphia, and greatly to our satisfaction. It surpasses any we have heretofore used. It deserves the high encomiums showered upon it by the press.

OFFICE OF NICHOLS & GORMAN,
Practical Book and Job Printers,
Raleigh, N. C., Sept 6, 1869.

W. H. BERNARD, Esq., Wilmington, N. C.:

Dear Sir: We received in due time the keg of News Ink sent us. As we have no newspaper, we have been using it for Hand Bills and General Job Work, and it has given entire satisfaction. It works clean, distributes well, and is a good black. For the price, we have never used better. If you have any kegs of Book Ink, of about 25 lbs., send us one keg.

Very respectfully,
NICHOLS & GORMAN.

From the Petersburg Index.]

ROBINSON'S PRINTING INKS.—In our advertising columns will be found a number of extracts from newspapers complimenting the Printing Ink manufactured at the Gray's Ferry Printing Ink Works, Philadelphia, C. E. Robinson, proprietor. We have been using the Ink manufactured at these works for a year past, and it has always proved satisfactory. Mr. Robinson deserves the encouragement and patronage of the press, and of printers generally for the following good and sufficient reasons, viz: First. He was the first to put down the price of printing ink to a reasonable figure; second, This ink equals, if it does not surpass in quality that of any other manufacturer, while his prices are as low as any other; third, Mr. Robinson is one of the most pleasant and accommodating gentlemen to deal with that we have ever met with. Besides his newspaper inks, he also manufactures the most super or and desirable qualities of job inks, his best qualities being unexcelled by any other manufactured anywhere.

DR. JOHN BULL'S
Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL,
Manufacturer and Vendor of the Celebrated
Smith's Tonic Syrup,
FOR THE CURE OF
AGUE AND FEVER, OR
Chills and Fever.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the safe, certain, speedy and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southwestern country to sustain him in every way to the truth of the assertion, that in no case whatever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health, if it, however, prudent, and in every case it is certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETA-BLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

Bull's Worm Destroyer.

To my United States and World-wide Readers.

I have received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as my almanacs and various publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following letter from a highly educated and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. Dr. Clement knows exactly what he speaks of, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of BULL'S WORM DESTROYER:

VILLANOW, Walker County, Ga., June 29, 1869.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderfully efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary, they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine direct from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line M. D.'s but I see no just cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which are know to be efficient, simply because we may be ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate suffering humanity which I may be able to command—not sustaining because some one more ingenious than myself may have learned its effects first, and secured the sole right to secure that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the country, that purport to cure all manner of disease to which human flesh is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms. I am, sir, most respectfully,

JULIUS P. CLEMENT M. D

Bull's Sarsaparilla.

A Good Reason for the Captain's Faith.

READ THE CAPTAIN'S LETTER AND THE LETTER FROM HIS MOTHER.

BENTON BARRACKS, Mo., April 20, 1868.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficiency of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded two years ago—was taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not set up a moment since I was wounded. I am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in anything else. I wish that you would send me. Please express me half a dozen bottles, and oblige.

Capt. C. P. JOHNSON,

P. S.—The following was written April 23, 1868, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Captain Johnson:

RADICAL BOW-WOW.—The Radicals have a big bow-wow a Schofield's Hall, on Peachtree street, to-night, at 8 o'clock. Hash will be served up at the usual hour.

THE HEBREW.—This is the title of a newspaper, published at San Francisco, California, partly in English, partly in Hebrew. Philo Jacoby, Publisher. Terms, five dollars per annum.

GEORGIA GRAIN SEPARATOR.—Mr. L. B. Davis is agent in this city, for the sale of the county rights of the above useful article manufactured at Rome, Ga. The machine is simple and easily managed, and does its work effectively and nicely. Call and examine it.

RECEIVER'S SALE.—Noah R. Fowler, Receiver, will sell at ten o'clock to-day, at the warehouse of L. H. Harwell & Co., the entire stock of the American Hotel, being the furniture belonging to Messrs. White & Lykes, late proprietors of that house.

PITTS & JOHNSON.—We are under obligations to Messrs. Pitts & Johnson, of St. Louis, for their daily report of the St. Louis market, and find it of great practical benefit in making up our general markets. Mr. Pitts, of that firm, will visit our city in a few days, we learn, and we trust that other St. Louis merchants will imitate his example.

"A REPLY TO ARIEL."—A pamphlet bearing the above title, has just been issued, and purports to be from the pen of Harrison Berry, a full-blooded Cushite, who wrote some eight or ten years ago a defense of slavery. The logic and argument of the book is very much like Berry's. Price 50 cents. To be had at the book stores.

RUBINI.—Rubini, the celebrated performer, who has been greeted everywhere with crowded houses, arrived last night, and is stopping at the American. He gives one of his inimitable and wonderful entertainments to-night, at DeGive's Opera House. The house will be crowded. A diagram of the hall can be seen at the post office stand, this morning, where tickets can be procured, and seats reserved.

As this is the house-cleaning time, house-keepers should each provide themselves at once with a cake of Enoch Morgan's Son's Sapolio. It will be money well invested, for Sapolio will clean windows, marble, white paint, floors, tables and all wood work, and polish iron, steel, brass, tin and all metal wares splendidly. It is very cheap and works like a charm. Grocers, druggists and others sell it.

ON THE RAMPAGE.—It was currently reported on the streets yesterday evening, that the gentleman from Canada would move to-day in the House for the expulsion of the reporter of THE CONSTITUTION from that body, because the reporter said in the proceedings of Monday, that the gentleman from Canada "spoke a piece," and that he "did not know what he paid for it." We don't know that he paid anything for it—it might have been generously contributed for the occasion, for ought we know. We don't say that it was or that it was not!

HABEAS CORPUS CASE SETTLED.—A man named Gerstman, who had been swindling the merchants of Louisville, Kentucky, and other cities, was arrested in Savannah, a few days since, on a requisition from the Governor of Kentucky. He was released by the Ordinary on a writ of habeas corpus, but re-arrested by order of General Terry. Mr. Crump, of Louisville, passed through here, and stated that just as he was preparing to carry Mr Gerstman to Kentucky, under the requisition, Gerstman settled up his (Crump's) claim of $1 8 9 against him, and accordingly went his way rejoicing.

THE LEGISLATURE.—The meeting to-day it is anticipated, will be an interesting one. It is rumored that Governor Bullock will take position that the test oath should be applied to the members of the General Assembly, predicating his view upon Attorney General Hoge's opinion in the Virginia case. The opinion of the Attorney General was delivered in August, 1869 before the Constitution of Virginia had been approved by Congress. Georgia is acting under an express law passed December 22, 1869, subsequent to the delivery of that opinion. The Constitution of Georgia has been approved by Congress; and Governor Bullock has recognized the greater portion of the acts of the present General Assembly by quarter sessions. It has been done under the personal supervision of Capt. V. P. Sisson, who is chairman of a committee having in their possession a small fund to be expended in that way, and it is due the committee to say that the fund has been both judiciously and economically expended. The committee consists of Messrs. Sisson, Roach and Carr, the sum being $200, the result of a circus entertainment given last year the proceeds of which were to be thus disposed of.

THE DECORATION of the graves of the soldiers who wore the gray, took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The skies seemed to have donned the habiliments of mourning in respect for the gallant dead from a thousand homes, whose memory the surviving freedmen of this place keeping alive in their hearts. A dull, leaden color was the drapery of the skies, and a cool and clear, though a light wind, such as occasionally renders more sombre the melancholy autumn, sprung up to make more solemn the sacred sorrow of the hour.

A large concourse of persons of all classes, the rich and poor, high and low, united by the tie of sympathy for loved ones, who had nobly died in a common struggle for civil liberty, vied with each other in their reverence for the heroic dead who there lay beneath the sod.

The beautiful custom was rendered sacred and holy by the prayer of that polished gentleman and Christian scholar, the Rev. Mr. Leftwich, a Virginian by birth, and the pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church of this city, by the recent call of that large body of old school Presbyterians.

But the harmony of the scene was complete—the mourning sky, the melancholy murmuring of the cool wind, the sacred assertion of the man of God and the silence of the reverent multitude, clustering around the central feature of the occasion—the beautiful, chaste and classic speech of Col. Beard F. Hoge. His tall form, towering like Saul of old, above his fellows, of remarkable grace and symmetry, was well fitted to command the attention of the vast crowd. A sacred silence prevailed while he—himself a gallant soldier—paid a manly, heart touching tribute to the memory of his dead comrades who lay around him. Earnest, not bitter; noble, not reproving; soldierly, not brutal; his speech was such as to command the approval of every true soldier and of every lover of the "true, the beautiful and the good."

There was no resuscitation of the dead issues of the past, but only a manly portrayal of the virtues of the heroic dead, and a proud submission to the decease of the sword: "These graves," said he, "are ours," no boasted right of conquest can despoil our hearts of the memory of these noble dead."

The tones of the speaker, his manly sentiments, betraying true nobility of mind, his smoothly flowing sentences and well rounded periods, chiming in with the scene, like the rushing of the river with the music of the woodlands, still linger in the memory and the heart; and with these fresh in mind, truth forces the statement that it was the most fitting speech for such an occasion this writer has ever read.

There was, it is true, a slight degree too much of gesticulation for the grandeur of the occasion and the speech. Would that such men could now fill the councils of the country! then, soon, the sword would be turned into the ploughshare, and our cemented union would again show us the happy days of yore.

Col. Hoge is a young man of thirty years of age, of a fine legal mind, a good lawyer and a Christian gentleman.

After the speech, the wreaths and flowers were scattered over the graves, and as the memorialists lingeringly departed, they seemed to feel that

> "Brief the record, but its splendor
> Flashes out from every name,
> And the sunlight, clear and tender,
> Lingers round this Roll of Fame."

Col. Hoge was introduced in a brief but eloquent manner by Gen. Gordon.

A triumphal arch was placed over the principal walk, beautifully festooned with evergreens and flowers.

We have before us a communication from several lady friends, requesting Col. Hoge to furnish a copy of his speech for publication.

CONSUMPTION

From September 1st, 1869, to April 14th. English spinners consumed 1,703,402 bales of American, or an average of 227,120 bales per month. If continued during the year, at the same average rate for the year would require 2,725 440 bales, or out of a crop of 3,000,000 bales would leave 275,000 bales in increased stocks of American at the end of the year.

English spinners are supposed to have diminished their stocks about 75.000 bales, while American spinners claim that they have increased their's about 150,000 bales. On the continent, manufacturers probably hold about the same they held September 1. Of course, if there is in the aggregate any increase in stocks held by spinners, to that amount the year's consumption in the above calculation must be decreased, and the surplus at the end of the season increased. Still it should be remembered that the average consumption for the past 7½ months is not by any means, and for obvious reasons, an absolute test of what it is to be during the remaining 4½ months.

INDIA CROP.—It appears to be generally admitted now that the shipments of India cotton before the monsoon are to be less than last year. The entire crop is late, and the earlier districts have had their crop very materially injured. How far this deficiency in the European supply from that quarter will be made good by shipments through the canal seems to be more of a question. The better opinion would appear to be that the movement in May and June will be in excess of last year, but not sufficient to make good the present deficiency. The monsoon sets in about the 10th of June and lasts until about the middle of July. Arrivals after the monsoon at the outports may still reach Europe through the canal before October 1st, so that by the latter date it is not impossible that this deficiency may be made good. These considerations are now having a controlling influence upon prices, and the India movement must therefore continue to be watched with great interest. Up to the present time the shipments are about 190,000 bales less than for the same period of last year.

CINCINNATI, April 22.

CORN—The receipts, as reported on the books of the Merchants Exchange, were over 11,000 bushels, but this included some lots which arrived several days since, and the actual receipts did not exceed 6 000 bushels. An effort was made to "bear" the market on account of the increased receipts, but finding their efforts unsuccessful, they entered the market, and there was a good demand for sound mixed at 39@91, on the landing and at the lower depots, and these figures were in several instances offered and refused, for lots to come for forward soon; at the close, 92 was the general asking price. White is not saleable above the price of mixed, and shelled will not command more than car. The distillers are the principal purchasers, though there was a moderate inquiry from retailers.

OATS—Holders are very firm in their views, and are endeavoring for full rates, the receipts being light, though they were not able to realize any advance. Stocks, however are small, and any material increase in the demand would lead to an advance, while lower rates would have to be accepted to induce buyers to take hold with any freedom. No sales reported at 50@50½ for No. 2; and 50@50½ for No. 1, white is quoted at 60.

LARD—Is very dull at 13, with sales not known, and it is difficult to buy at this at the close, though the demand is not above 16; steam held at kettle rates; kegs 17 3-4.

RETAIL LARD—Is selling at 17 1-4 for kegs; 18 1-4 in 10 lbs. caddies; 18 1-2 in 5 lbs. caddies; 18 3-4 in 3 lbs. caddies; in lots of 25 casks or more, or ¼ higher in small lots.

BULK MEATS—Firmer, 11, 14, 14½@15 loose for shoulders, rib, clear rib and clear sides, or ½ more packed. Bulk hams in good demand at 14 loose, for light averages. Sweet pickle scarce at 14½@15.

BACON—Is held firmly with buyers at 12, 15¾@16¾ for shoulders, clear rib and clear sides, but sides generally held higher. Sugar cured hams 17½@18½; Second pickle 16¾@17; plain 16@16 3-4, all canvassed and packed.

Holders maintain the same indifference as to sales, as noted in my last, and the consequence is that orders can not be filled except at full prices, while any pressure to sell would find unwilling buyers at anything like the quoted prices. Most points tributary to Cincinnati still hold almost their entire castings, with dogged firmness in hopes of better prices in the future, and with the hand to mouth orders that are being received from points represented as bare of provisions, it would augur that there might be staff enough yet, to run the season out and supply all the demand.

THE PROVISION MOVEMENT.—The Secretary of the Merchants' Exchange of St. Louis, in a statement of the provision movement at that point, shows the results of the present season as compared with the last:

"Between November 1st, 1868, and April 1st, 1869, received 41,045,720 pounds, and exported 24,205,540 pounds, leaving a surplus to be added to stocks of home packing, less home consumption of 15,740,180 pounds. During the same period this season, since the 1st of last November, St. Louis received only 18,786,540 pounds of meat, while exported 30,389,180 pounds; or in other words have called upon the stocks of home packing for 11,802,640 pounds."

This deficiency added to the surplus of last year, makes over twenty-seven and a half millions of pounds, to be supplied by an excess of the seasons packing, or by purchases from other points, and establishes the position heretofore assumed by us, that the demand this year more than equals any excess of packing in the West, and strengthens the impression that stocks at this place as not only short of last year, when they were exhausted before the 1st of October, but that they are necessarily below the requirements of the trade; and indicates that without increased exertions to draw supplies from other points, several dealers will be out of stock before the season closes, and that none of them will be in a position to furnish liberal supplies, much less to encourage speculation.

Special Notices.

☞ SOLOMONS' EUREKA PILLS will be found a certain cure for Chills and Fevers. No disease has so regular a succession of definite stages as Chills and Fever, viz: the cold, the hot, and the sweating stage.

The duration of the Chill varies from fifteen minutes to two or three hours, then the hot stage or fever comes on, which may last from an hour or two to sixteen or eighteen hours—after which the sweating stage comes on gradually, the face first becoming moist, then the trunk and limbs; the patient often goes to sleep and sweats profusely.

Dumb Ague is the popular term for the attack when the chill is absent.

Intermittent Neuralgia is very common in malarial districts, and all complaints are there apt to come on periodically.

The Eureka Pills have, for many years, enjoyed a great reputation; they never fail to perform a complete and thorough cure. apr27-diw

WE NOTICE that W. B. Moseley is sole agent for Dow's "Ice Cream Salt Apparatus." He has now on hand a sample of their make, with all the modern improvements. As the hot months are approaching, it would be well to give this matter some attention.

He will shortly receive a magnificent [illegible] for his store. This is a mammoth affair, combining beauty with strength, and overflows with splendid cut glass vases. Now forgetting the ice cream question, which is itself something new and extraordinary, some good pumpkin will be [illegible] during the coming season.

DRAWING-ROOM CHAT.—The following conversation took place in the drawing-room of a mansion on Clinton avenue, Brooklyn, one pleasant forenoon about ten days ago. (Two ladies, Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Knight, had just dropped in for a morning's call on Mrs. Rapelje, the lady of the house.)

Mrs. M.—My dear Mrs. Rapelje, are you sick? You look quite delicate.

Mrs. R.—No; not sick exactly; but suffering from debility and dreadfully nervous. Do you know, I could cry this minute.

Mrs. K.—Too much excitement, I'm afraid.

Mrs. R.—Perhaps. But what can one do? In the gay season, one must give parties and attend them.

Mrs. M.—I suppose so. Fashion is law; more's the pity. But you must take something to tone your system, or you'll break down.

Mrs. R.—I hate medicine! But you shall prescribe for me. What would you advise?

Mrs. M.—Well, I'll tell you my plan. Whenever I'm nervous or hysterical, or have a headache, or am at all out of sorts, I take a couple of tablespoonfuls of Plantation Bitters once or twice a day for a week or so, and it invariably brings me round.

Mrs. K.—I do the same thing, with the same pleasant result. I have implicit faith in that article.

Mrs. R.—Well, ladies, on your recommendation, I'll try it.

ARGYLE BITTERS.

THE superiority of the above named article is now by many others Bitters is now admitted in every instance where a comparison has been made. The Proprietors most respectfully informs the public that the high reputation they have so justly acquired has been on their intrinsic merits alone. The ingredients used, in point of purity, excellence and medicinal qualities can not be surpassed, imparting a richness and delicacy of flavor heretofore unequaled by any combination of medicines having any claim for the relief of the following complaints, for which the

are especially recommended, viz:
Dyspepsia, Indigestion,
Diseases of the Stomach,
Nervousness, Jaundice,
Bilious Complaints,
Costiveness, Cramps,

Loss of Appetite,
Low ers of Spirits or Melancho'y,

All the virtues of the true CALISAYA BARK are to be found in the ARGYLE BITTERS, making them the best Appetizer and gentle Tonic in all cases of General Debility and Derangement of the Stomach and Digestive Organs, that it is possible to produce.

Being mild in effect and pleasant to the taste, they are especially recommended to delicate females as a gentle soothing and invigorating tonic.

The following important Certificate from Dr. L. L. CRAWCOUR, an eminent Chemist and Physician of this city, speaks so favorably of the Argyle Bitters, we deem it superfluous to add anything further:

201 CARP STREET, NEW ORLEANS, September 1, 1864.

Messrs. Wheelock, Finlay & Co:

GENTLEMEN—I have carefully examined your Argyle Bitters, and from my knowledge of their ingredients can safely recommend them as a good and reliable tonic and especially as a corrective of that morbid desire which so frequently affects those addicted to the use of ardent spirits. The chief ingredients being the best Calisaya Bark, renders them peculiarly fitted for the use of those residing in malarious districts, as they will not only act as a preventive against intermittent disease, but in a large number of cases may cure it when it has made its appearance.

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

SUMMER SNOW.

BY MISS MOLLIE E. MOORE.

Aline, Aline, the prairie wears
Its yearly fall of Summer Snow,
For white upon their slender stalks
The milk-weed blossoms blow,
They hide the grassy plots grain
Where quails lie low and whistle sweet,
And I again stray forth to watch
The coming of your feet.

The faithful clouds above stoop low
With far-off blue-like mist between;
Your hair was like a shower of gold
That summer day, Aline;
The sweet love-look was in your eyes,
A love smile on your lips below,
As down the winding path you came
Knee deep in Summer Snow!

I, with a man's impatience chafed
To mark your woman step, that stayed
At every turn to hear the cries
The nestling partridge made!
I feel the old impatience rise,
I hear the birds whirr to and fro,
I see the brown path winding still
Through drifts of Summer Snow.

When will this trick of watching cease?
Full thirty years since then have been,
But still, whene'er the milk weed blooms,
I watch for you, Aline;
I half forget the distant grave
That Northern violets cover so,
Where thirty seasons you have lain
Breast deep in Winter Snow!

Ritualism in England.

The Bishop of London has had a special interview with Rev. Mr. Mackonochie, of St. Albans, and a number of other clergy of ritualistic tendencies. He told them he considered that he has a right to enforce the following regulations among others, in all the churches of his diocese, and it is understood that he will take means to enforce them: The prohibition of the notices of high celebration of the Holy Eucharist; the ceremonial mixing water with the wine at the holy communion; the elevation of the paten and the cup; the ringing of a bell at the time of consecration and elevation; making the sign of a cross when about to mix water with the wine; wearing stoles and dalmatics at the communion service; using lighted candles on the communion table during celebration; the ceremonial use of lighted candles at other times; using incense for censing persons and things; processions round the church with thurifers, incense vessels, crucifixes and candles; leaving the Holy Table uncovered on Good Friday; blessing of candles, etc. The points which the bishop proposes to leave untouched for the present are as follows: The vases of flowers on the Holy Table, regarding which the Dean of the Arches said there was no evidence to prove that they had been used as an additional rite or ceremony; administration of wine and water mixed; standing in front of the Holy Table, with back to the people during prayer of Consecration; the use of wafer bread; wearing a chasuble at the Communion Service; wearing tunicles and albs at the Communion Service; wearing the baretta. It is understood that the clergy more immediately affected, will resist the bishop's attempt to suppress the practices in which they are interested, and that a fierce ecclesiastical battle may be expected.

Facts in the McFarland Case.

The story which has been before told, now appears as positive testimony in the trial, that when McFarland was prosecuting Richardson in a civil suit to recover possession of his own children, whom Richardson had spirted away with the mother, McFarland was offered $10,000 in money and a consulship, which would place him well out of the way on the other side of the world, if he would only abandon the prosecution, thereby abandoning also his wife and his children to Richardson.

It is easy to conjecture that Richardson, who was worth $70,000, would be willing to pay $10,000 for the undisturbed possession of the woman whom he describes as "luscious," and whom he said he was bound to marry anyhow. But where was the consulship to come from? Richardson was the intimate friend of Schuyler Colfax, then Speaker of the House, now Vice-President and presiding officer of the Senate. He was his traveling companion across the plains to California. Colfax was one of the first to send a sympathetic telegram to the dying Richardson. Colfax assisted Mrs. McFarland in the procurement of her rag-paper divorce, in Indiana. Was Colfax to furnish the consulship which was the proposed part payment for McFarland's wife and children?

The Mrs. Calhoun, who is described by Charles Spencer, Chairman of the Republican party in New York, as a "pander" and "procuress," is a prominent writer of editorials, especially on social and domestic topics, in the Tribune, which is the leading organ of the Republican party. What else will this trial develop?—Hartford Times.

☞ The late Shogoon, of Japan, who is residing at and who is the owner of the province of Suringa, has established schools in every town and village, and ordered all the boys to be instructed in one foreign language; English is the most popular one. He has also started schools for medicine, etc., and others for the instruction of the army and navy. He encourages the cultivation of the land in every way.

KOSKOO!

THE GREAT REPUTATION

Which KOSKOO has attained in all parts of country

AS A GREAT AND GOOD MEDICINE

And the Large Numbers of Testimonials

which are constantly being received from Physicians, and persons who have BEEN CURED by its use, is CONCLUSIVE PROOF of its REMARKABLE VALUE.

AS A BLOOD PURIFIER,

IT HAS NO EQUAL.

BEING POSITIVELY

The Most Powerful Vegetable Alterative Yet Discovered.

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

"The life of the flesh is in the Blood," is a Scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood, as the cause of many diseases, and like many popular opinions, this of bad blood is founded in truth.

The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion—causes imperfect nutrition, consequently the circulation is feeble, the soft tissues loose their tone and elasticity, and the tongue becomes pale, broad, and frequently covered with a pasty, white coat. This condition soon shows itself in roughness of the skin, then in ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE diseases, and when long continued, results in serious lesions of the Brain, Liver, Lungs, or urinary apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fifth of the human family are effected with scrofula in some form.

When the Blood is pure, you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the Blood arise from impure diseases of large cities Eradicate every impurity from the fountain of life, and good spirits, fair skin and vital strength will return to you.

KOSKOO,

AS A

Liver Invigorator!

STANDS UNRIVALLED.

Being the only KNOWN Medicine

that EFFICIENTLY stimulates and CORRECTS the hepatic secretions and functional DERANGEMENTS of the LIVER, WITHOUT DEBILITATING the system. While it acts directly upon the Liver instead of copious purging, it gradually changes the discharges to a perfectly natural state.

SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT AND OF SOME OF THOSE DISEASES PRODUCED BY IT.

A sallow or yellow color of the skin, or yellowish-brown spots on the face and other parts of the body; dullness and drowsiness, sometimes, headache; bitter or bad taste in the mouth, internal heat; in many cases a dry, teasing cough; unsteady appetite; sometimes sour stomach, with a raising of the food; a bloated or full feeling about the stomach and sides; aggravating pains in the side, back, or breast, and about the shoulders; constipation of the bowels; piles, flatulence, coldness of the extremities, etc.

KOSKOO!

Is a remedy of Wonderful Efficacy in the cure of diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder. In these Affections it is as near a specific as any remedy can be. It does its work silently, steadily, and surely. The relief which it affords is both certain and perceptible.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.

Persons unacquainted with the structure and functions of the Kidneys can not estimate the importance of their healthy action.

Regular and uniform action of the Kidneys is as important, nay, even more so, than regularity of the bowels. The Kidneys remove from the blood those effete matters which, if permitted to remain, would speedily destroy life. A total suspension of the urinary discharges will occasion death from thirty-six to forty-eight hours.

When the Urine is voided in small quantities at the time, or when there is a disposition to Urinate more frequently than natural, or when the Urine is high colored or scalding with weakness in the small of the back, it should not be trifled with or delayed, but Koskoo should be taken at once to remedy the difficulty, before a lesion of the organs takes place. Most of the diseases of the Bladder originate from those of the Kidneys, the Urine being imperfectly secreted in the Kidneys, proves irritating to the Bladder and Urinary passages. When we recollect that medicine never reaches the Kidneys through the general circulation of the Blood, we see how necessary it is to keep the Fountain of Life Pure.

KOSKOO!

Meets with GREAT SUCCESS in the CURE of

DISEASES OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM,

Almost nine-tenths of our people suffer from nervous exhaustion, and are, therefore, liable to its concomitant evils of mental depression, confused ideas, softening of the brain, insanity, and complete breaking down of the general health. Thousands are suffering to-day with broken-down nervous systems, and, unfortunately, tobacco, alcohol, late hours, over-work (mental and physical), are causing diseases of the nervous system to increase at a fearful rate.

The symptoms to which diseases of the nervous system give rise, may be stated as follows:

A dull, heavy feeling in the head, sometimes more or less severe pain or headache; Periodical Headache, Dizziness, Noises or Ringing in the Head; Confusion of Ideas; Temporary Loss of Memory; Dejection of Spirits; Starting during Sleep; Bad Dreams; Aversion to Answering Questions; Dullness of Hearing; Twitching of the Face and Arms, etc., which, if not promptly treated, lead to Paralysis, Delirium, Insanity, Impotency, Apoplexy, etc., etc.

THE WILLINGHAM FERTILIZER

FOR

COTTON, CORN,

WHEAT.

THIS STANDARD MANURE, named after a well known practical Planter of Georgia and South Carolina, combines in a concentrated form all the fertilizing elements necessary for the production of COTTON, CORN and WHEAT, and by its use is certain to increase not only the crop, but to improve the quality of the products. It is made with a special view to the wants of the soils of the South, and can be relied upon as to excellence of material, containing highly necessary substances, the great cost of which have heretofore precluded their being in common use. It can be depended on as uniform, always reliable, and productive of good crops.

ALBANY, GA., September, 1870.

Having a full knowledge of the composition and process of manufacture of the "Willingham Cotton, Corn, Wheat and Rice Fertilizer," I have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a most reliable fertilizer, one of the best in use, and most particularly adapted to the soil of Georgia and South Carolina.
